CALIFORNIA ROSES

QUEEN OF FLOWERS

OUR LEADING SPECIALTY

We feature extra strong 2 year old roses grafted (bud-ded) on a special strong growing root-stock to insure: Long Life, Healthy Growth, Flowers this Summer, and General Satisfaction. Guaranteed.

Do not confuse this fine strong stock with roses grown on their OWN ROOTS or smaller commercial grades.

BUY the BEST and HAVE the BEST RESULTS

HOW TO GROW ROSES

LOCATION OF BEDS. Roses should be planted where they will be open to sunlight for at least half of each day. In locating beds, avoid trees, shrubbery and shady sides of buildings and fences. This will lessen the danger from insects and diseases.

SOIL. Any good garden soil, which will grow good vegetables, will grow, with proper fertilization, fine Roses. The ideal soil is a clay loam of sufficient porosity to permit of ready drainage.

In such soils the growth is strong and vigorous and the flowers have great substance. But even in a light, sandy soil, roses can be made to grow well, and they flower, as a rule, earlier than in heavy soil. To improve light soils, add clay, Holland peat, or adobe, and use pulverized Sheep manure as a fertilizer.

BUY the BEST and HAVE the BEST RESULTS

DO not apply strong fertilizers directly to the roots, but dust it on the surface and rake in slightly after the bushes are planted.

PLANTING. Most varieties should be planted about 2½ feet apart. Both heads and roots of bare-root plants must be cut back before planting and thoroughly soaked with water afterwards. Should the roots appear to be dry on arrival, mix up some soil and water and "puddle" the roots in it for a couple of hours before planting. This closes the pores of the roots temporarily and to some extent prevents loss of sap through evaporation, a most important point. In planting, thoroughly soak the soil down before adding the last or surface soil. This insures every portion of the root being thoroughly covered and prevents cracking of the surface owing to the top soil being loosely placed. Frequent hoeing or cultivating of the surface soil is absolutely necessary to keep this loose soil or "mulch" on the surface. Especially is it necessary after watering. Plant the bushes so that the point where it is budded shall be at least three or four inches below the ground.

WATERING. Most people water their Roses too much. Once a week is often enough, and that early in the morning. Keep the soil mulched or cultivated around the bushes to prevent baking.

PRUNING. Field-grown dormant Roses should be cut back severely when first set out. Subsequent prunings should be attended to in late Winter and early Spring, when all dead and weak growth should be removed entirely and the strong, live canes shortened back to one or two feet in length, according to the growth of the previous season. It may be accepted as a general rule that weak growth should be pruned severely and strong growth sparingly. Climbing Roses should not be cut back any more than is necessary to keep the plant in a shapely appearance.

BEST TIME FOR PLANTING. No question is asked more frequently than, "When is the best time to plant Roses?" Our dormant field-grown Roses can be planted any time that the soil can be worked, between November and April. By our careful system of bailing and potting, roses can be planted at any time of year; but the safest time to plant bare root bushes is from November to April.

Customers selecting their own roses are respectfully re¬quested to add to the orders a few supplementary varieties, lest, by previous orders, the stock of any particular variety should be exhausted.

ABBREVIATIONS: T. means Tea Roses; H. T. means Hybrid Tea; H. P. Hybrid Perpetuals; Pol. Polyantha (Baby Roses); Per. means Pernetiana; N. means Noisette.
Novelties and Recent Introductions

Each new generation crowns the Rose as the “Queen of Flowers,” and a garden without Roses is rare indeed. Year after year these favorites are being improved in size, color, form and profusion of bloom.

The newer Roses have been selected with great care from the introductions of prominent specialists. We have had the opportunity of testing these newcomers, and vouch for their high quality, and while the beginner or amateur, who only wants a limited number of varieties, will find just as much pleasure in adding to his collection from the older and less expensive sorts, we fully recommend these newer sorts to the connoisseur, who already has an extensive collection, or to those who wish to keep strictly up-to-date.

HOW TO GROW BERRIES

Blackberries, Phenomenal and Loganberries should be planted in good soil, in rows 6 to 8 feet apart, and 4 feet apart in the row. After the leaves have fallen cut off the canes that fruited during the summer. Allow the new canes which have sprouted to remain for the coming season as it is the new growth that produces the choicest fruit. After the new canes have grown 5 to 6 feet, prune off the tips of each cane to force out the side branches. A good top dressing of well-rotted manure should be applied as soon as the patch is cleaned up.Currants and Gooseberries should be planted in rows 5 to 6 feet apart and 2 to 3 feet apart in the row. Trim out the old wood as it begins to decline and shorten the young shoots in spring as may be desired in order to keep the bushes in good shape.

How To Grow Strawberries

Strawberries thrive on any good, rich garden soil, but it should be liberally fertilized, preferably with bone meal or our "MORCROP" (commercial fertilizer). The ground should be thoroughly prepared, and the plants set one foot apart in rows not less than two feet apart. The bottom one-third of the roots should be cut off before planting and the roots should be spread out in a natural position. Exercise care that the plant is set so that the crown of the plant is above the ground. After the plants are well established mulch the strawberry bed entirely with clean straw, to keep the fruit off the bare soil and hold the moisture.

What Shall I Plant?
Where Shall I Plant It?
Here is your answer from a few inches of Ground Cover growth to shrub and shade tree heights. Special location and special garden effects are outlined briefly.

LANDSCAPING

GROUND COVERS
The many wonderful creeping plants referred to as "ground covers" should not be considered merely as substitutes for lawns, but are distinctive ornamental values and add charming touches of color, and beautiful garden effects used as borders, beds, planted in groups or en masse as ground covers. They are drought and heat resistant, thriving under conditions that make a lawn impossible. The collection we offer is specially suited to central California.

LAWN SUBSTITUTES
Lippia Repens—Small creeping plant, with pink daisy-like flowers, making a fine green sod, and useful for lawns. Does not require much watering. In flats, $1.50 per flat, making several hundred rooted cuttings. These are planted 1 foot apart, and well watered for a week or two; this method will soon cause it to cover the ground. Rooted plants, $1.00 per 1000. Delivered.

Mesembryanthemum (Ice Plant)—Fleshy-leaved trailing or half woody plants for covering banks, etc., and growing well in dry or sandy soils. Small lavender pink variety, dozen, 35c; $2.25 per 100. Delivered. Large cerise pink variety, dozen, 50c; $3.50 per 100. Delivered.

Fragaria (Trailing Strawberry)—Useful for covering banks, for window boxes, hanging baskets, etc. 10c each, 75c per 10, $5.00 per 100.

PERMANENT GROUND COVERS
25 Plants at 100 Plant Rate
Vinca Major Variegata (Periwinkle)—Foliage green and white, tinted gold; flowers large, bright blue. One of the best ground covers. Rooted plants, $5.00 per 100.

Vinca Minor—Same as preceding, but leaves smaller and dark green, $7.50 per 100.

HEDERA HELIX (English Ivy)—Frequently used for ground covers under trees or in full sun, slow to be established but lasting for long periods with little or no care. Well-rooted plants, $10.00 per 100.

Hypericum Calycinum—Low, bushy ground cover, very hardy, 12 to 15 inches high, stands drought, spreads faster if kept dwarf. Flowers bright golden yellow. Well-rooted plants, $10.00 per 100.

Gazanias, Verbenas, Helianthemums, Nasturtiums, Cupid Sweet Peas are other subjects used for ground cover, but the plants noted above solve your problems permanently and require little attention after the first cost.

Garden Plants, Shrubs, Trees
The following varieties comprise a very fine list of the best forms of garden ornamentals. We feel that the arrangement of types according to their use and the height (that you can expect them to be on a year's growth) will be of help in the proper placing of plants in your own garden. Of course, long or short pruning, or allowing nature to take its course, will make a slight variation here and there; however, the arrangement is unique and should be of value to any garden maker.

CALIFORNIA SEED & PLANT CO.

Spencer or Orchid Flowered Sweet Peas

Work the soil at least 18 inches deep, 2 feet is better, with plenty of rotten stable manure. Cow manure is the best; use some lime and crushed bone. Tramp the soil down firmly; never plant in loose soil. Take the hose and water down to the base. Let stand a few days until moderately moist. NEVER PUT THE SEED IN TOO WET SOIL. Rake off the surface nice and smooth. For a good show, plant at least two inches deep, and two inches apart. Rake off again. DO NOT WATER UNTIL ALL THE SEED IS UP, AT LEAST HALF AN INCH OUT OF THE SOIL. (Nine-tenths of failures are caused by watering too soon). Thin out to at least six inches apart and train on wire netting or strings when plants are five or six inches high. Applications of liquid manure during flowering period will add to the length of stems and size of blossoms.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD LAWNS

A well kept lawn adds so much to the appearance and value of your home grounds that special attention should be given to the selection and quality of seed plus a thorough preparation of the soil. If the soil is adobe or clayey, sharp river sand or better, a bale of our Granulated Peat Moss to a space of 20 x 20 worked into the upper 4 inches of soil. This material has the effect of keeping the soil from running together, permitting the proper grass root development (over a period of years) and the retaining of moisture due to its porous nature. It is also a boon for the extreme sandy conditions that is so general in San Francisco and Alameda. Plant our bale of granulated peat moss at the surface where the roots are and does not disappear like barnyard manure. Our Special Granulated Peat Moss is $5.50 per bale, delivered, in bay district.

SOW ANY MONTH. September to May is the best time to sow a new lawn; however, with a little care in watering every month will give good results.

How to Make a New Lawn

Always recall that all soil grows and contains many weeds before it is touched by you. Hoe the surface clear of weeds and roots. Spade your soil carefully, commencing at one end with a trench the depth of your spade. As you progress, take the surface crust off the ground being spaded and bury at the base of the trench. In this manner you kill many (nearly all) of the obnoxious weeds. Break up the surface clods, raking, leveling and grading the lawn carefully. The next step is seed. You must use plenty for the best results. We recommend one pound of seed to 10 by 15 or 150 square feet. Scatter the seed as your eye directs, saving a little out to finish the misses and edges. Rake the seed in lightly, or if a clover lawn, do not rake, but chop it with the rake. As you Progress, use the back of your spade or a long heavy board to firm the surface well. Then keep the surface well moistened morning and evening, if necessary, until all the seed is up, which may be three or four weeks.

HOW TO IMPROVE AN OLD LAWN. With a sharp tooth rake break into surface and pull through the old sod severely. One pound of seed mixed with a pailful of soil and scattered evenly over 10 x 25, or 250 square feet. Take a broom and sweep the seed into the crevices made by the rake in the old sod, firming well with back of spade. In a few weeks your lawn will be greatly improved.

SPECIAL CAUTION! Never use stable manure for dressing a lawn, it brings WEEDS and TROUBLE. A good dressing of our LAWN MORCROP is much more efficient and ECONOMICAL, sustaining the growth and beautiful deep green color you have always admired.
